The Quest

An overview

Inspired by Angels the Quest takes you on a journey of spiritual self discovery. Where, from a point deep within, you explore your life path. Once acknowledged you have choices to make. Commit to working towards achieving that which you chose to do in this life time or walk away. Either way you will have a clear idea after the introductory workshop which you wish to do, and we are committed to supporting you during the process.

If you choose to continue, the path then leads you to discover the areas in which you are not achieving your full potential, that which is blocking you from achieving your goals in this incarnation. You will be guided and given tools and techniques to overcome those impediments. You then move on to survey the map of your past and chart your next voyage, secure in the knowledge that it will lead you home.

Gaia Quest

The Gaia Quest is the beginning of a journey which takes you from a point deep within yourself to infinity, whilst never leaving the room. Along the way you will learn to connect with the Angelic, the wise ones and the Divine. Helped and supported by these wise beings you will feel secure and happy as you venture into the unknown.

Through a series of monthly workshops you are led to discover the best way forward for you, and then encouraged as you voyage into the uncharted waters of your future. The workshops are unique in combining harmoniously many and varied vibratory techniques. These include meditation, crystals, spiritual coaching, divination and using Angel Script to connect with Angels from the Tree of Life.

During The Gaia Quest you will discover those techniques which serve you best and will be encouraged to investigate these and related fields further. Empowering you to heal yourself, & past traumas; freeing you to optimise your future potential.

Completion of the Gaia Quest will enable you to move on to The Angel Quest in the following year if that is where your path leads. Here you will be introduced to Shefa healing, astrology and further Angels from the Tree of Life.

The Quest is facilitated by Julie who has over 20 years experience in teaching adults by this method in a variety of fields including bereavement support, and most recently, complementary medicine & spiritual coaching. The method is described as an 'experiential workshop' where the participants work through exercises which enable them to learn from their own experiences. These are then explored one to one or in small groups to anchor the learning and determine the relevance for the individuals. Some of the workshops will be co-facilitated by specialists in the various techniques covered. Numbers are limited to ensure all participants are fully assisted in their experience and learning.

The Gaia Quest is based on the Seven Realms of Consciousness, and comes complete with maps and guidance for your journey through each realm. The first Realm is introduced on Day 2 of the introductory weekend and each of the first four realms takes two months to travel through. The workshops give you the opportunity to expand your awareness and evolve into the next stage of your journey and increasingly, into the seventh realm.
